

At the Farmers' Museum, your family can visit an entire village of 19th century buildings brought to Cooperstown from other towns in central New York. You will meet blacksmiths, shopkeepers, weavers, broom makers and farmers.